Please check out our new practice blog

As many of you already know, we have been working on redesigning the layout of our website to further simplify the procedures and to make it more user friendly. We are excited to say that we are looking to launch it in early 2012. We were able to, however, begin the first portion of the redesign with launching our blog in September 2011. Much time and dedication was taken into addressing key issues/cases that we have encountered, and we would like you to take a few minutes and check out our newest addition to the practice and let us know what you think. We welcome feedback and comments that will enable us to be more efficient to further serve you. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Relay For Life, Santa Clarita, May 2011

This year the practice took part in RELAY FOR LIFE, an annual event held in Santa Clarita to help raise money and bring awareness to different types of cancer. We hosted a booth to help raise money for Breast Cancer and Breast Cancer Awareness. We provided informational packets about detecting cancer early and spoke with survivors about options for breast cancer reconstruction. Overall it was an amazing experience. The practice raised nearly $1000, and we hope to surpass that mark next year. This event touched the lives of not only our team members, but the community as a whole and we were honored to take part in such an amazing event
